The flowers on the Altar this morning have been presented by Mary Turchi to the glory of God and in loving memory of the St. Pierre and Anderson families.

We celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord with this morning's celebration of the holy Eucharist. St. John practices Eucharistic hospitality. All baptized Christians who have been admitted to the Table in other traditions and who hold to the Real Presence of our Lord, are invited to partake of the bread and wine. If you prefer to receive the elements in your place, please let an usher know. Young people are also invited to approach the altar to receive a pastoral blessing.

On this joyous Easter Day, we extend a warm and cordial welcome to all visitors who may be worshipping with us. St. John is a fellowship of God's people worshipping and serving in the Reformation tradition. We invite you to worship with us again and to become part of our ministry here on the North Shore. Please sign our Guest Book before you leave, and please join us downstairs following the Service for coffee and light refreshments.

This morning and throughout the Easter season, we shall use Setting II of the liturgy.

Our sincere appreciation goes to Margaret Knowlton and the members of the chancel Choir for their inspiring musical leadership of our worship today and throughout this past Lenten Season.

Our thanks go to all who have placed lilies in the chancel for this morning's celebration. Please take your plant(s) with you today or leave them for distribution to our sick and shut-in.

Following the coffee hour, our Sunday Church school young people will enjoy our annual Easter egg hunt. Our sincere appreciation goes to our Sunday church school teachers and staff for their ongoing dedication to the Christian education of our young people. Sunday classes will not meet today, but will resume next Sunday.

The Church Council will hold its regular monthly meeting this Thursday evening, beginning at 7:00, here at the church.

Next Sunday our Easter celebration continues. Please plan to be present to worship our Risen Lord. Our next celebration of holy communion will be on the first Sunday in May.

We ask your prayers and concern for these members and friends of St. John today and throughout the coming week.
