The flowers on the Altar this morning have been presented by to the glory of God by Carole Grayson, in loving memory of Sormunen family loved ones, and Jayne Petitto, in loving memory of family loved ones.

We extend a warm welcome to everyone who is present for worship this morning, particularly you who may be visitors among us. We invite you to worship with us again, and to join with us in our ministry here on the North Shore. Please sign our Guest Book before you leave, and please join us downstairs following the service for coffee and light refreshments.

We also welcome our own Angie Cornwell to the organ console this morning and are most grateful for her musical leadership of our worship.

We shall use Setting I of the Liturgy today and throughout the Pentecost season.

Our Sunday church school classes have concluded for the summer. Classes will resume in September.

Today is Father's Day on the secular calendar. We happily join in honoring our dads and in recognizing their singular role in our families, taking their model from God himself whom we call "Father".

Our thanks go to all who made last Sunday's church picnic so enjoyable.

Several Sundays remain open on the Flower chart. Please check the chart and sign for the open Sunday(s) you may wish to provide flowers for the altar. Thank you for your generous support.

Canned and dry goods are always welcome at Haven from Hunger. Please place any donations you may wish to make in the designated carton downstairs.

We ask your prayers and concern for those members and friends of St. John today and throughout the coming week.
