The flowers on the Altar this morning have been presented by our Lutheran Church Women to the glory of God and in loving memory of all departed members.

We extend a cordial welcome to all visitors who are worshipping with us this morning. St. John is a fellowship of God's people worshipping and serving in the Reformation tradition. We invite you to worship with us again and to join with us in our ministry here on the North shore. Please sign our guest Book before you leave, and please join us downstairs following the service for coffee and light refreshments.

We are pleased to welcome Elder Kenneth Wang once again to the pulpit this morning. Mr. Wang is Angie Cornwell's dad and is a former interim minister of the Atlanta Chinese Christian Church North. He is currently an elder of that church. We greatly appreciated his message last Sunday and look forward to Part II today.

We also welcome our own Susan Dancewicz to the organ console this morning and are grateful for her musical leadership of our worship.

Canned and dry goods are always welcome at Haven from Hunger. Please place any donations you may wish to make in the designated carton downstairs.

We are very pleased to announce that the Flower Chart is now filled for the remainder of this year. Thank you for your ongoing generous support.

Be sure to take time in these days of summer to rest and re-create in God's great outdoors.

We ask your prayers and concern for these members and friends of St. John today and throughout the coming week.

Ellen Hepburn	Sylvia Moynihan	David Fredricksen
Dorothy Fender	Bill Henderson	Anna Snow
	Carole Grayson

We join with those who mourn in remembering before God and one another these members and friends who have departed in the sign of the faith.
