Please disable all cellphones and other devices upon entering the sanctuary. Thank you.

The flowers on the Altar this morning have been presented by Linda Berg to the glory of God and in loving memory of Olavi and Arline Ahonen and loved ones.

We cordially welcome all visitors who may be worshipping with us this morning. St. John is a fellowship of God's people worshipping and serving in the Reformation tradition. We invite you to worship with us again and to join with us in our ministry here on the North Shore. Please sign our Guest Book before you leave and please join us downstairs following the service for coffee and light refreshments.

We also welcome our own Angie Cornwell back to the organ console this morning. We are grateful for her musical leadership of our worship.

We also extend a belated welcome back to the Chancel Choir following the summer hiatus. We truly appreciated their contribution to our worship and those of our organist Margaret Knowlton.

Our Sunday church school classes begin at 11:00 a.m. Christian education is clearly one of our callings and responsibilities as a Christian congregation. Our Sunday school staff have only a relatively short time to teach our young people on our behalf. Please assist in this effort by helping to end the coffee hour promptly at 11:00.

Our WELCA group will meet today here in the sanctuary immediately following the coffee hour. All women of the church are cordially invited.

The WELCA Annual Fair is scheduled for Saturday, November 7, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Please bring items for the White elephant table over the next several weeks. Please bring items for the fruit baskets and the baked goods table the week before the fair. Thank you for your continued generous support.

Planning ahead, we are looking for volunteers to shovel snow here at the church over the winter months. Please speak with Fred Faust if you are willing to help out in this way.

Fall is fast approaching, with the transition in seasons that comes with it. Be sure to get out and enjoy the color and changes that are part of God's good creation.

We ask your prayers and concern for these members and friends of St. John today and throughout the coming week.

We join with those who mourn in remembering before God and one another these members and friends who have departed in the sign of the faith.
