Ushers: Fred Faust and Chip Bott

Please disable all cellphones and other devices in the sanctuary.

The flowers on the Altar this evening have been presented by the Faust family to the glory of God and in loving memory of Joan Faust.

On this Christmas Eve, we gather at the manger to celebrate the sacrament of holy communion and to mark the birth of our Lord in this special and appropriate manner. St. John practices Eucharistic hospitality. All baptized Christians who have been admitted to the Table in other traditions are welcome to share the bread and wine of the Eucharist. If you prefer to receive the elements in your place, please so inform an usher. If you prefer nonalcoholic wine, please let Pastor know quietly at the communion rail. Young children are invited to approach the Altar, folding their hands to indicate they are to receive a pastoral blessing. During this flu season, Pastor and the Lay Assistant will sanitize their hands before the service begins, and, in the same spirit, feel free to exchange the peace in a way that does not involve physical contact.

We extend a warm and cordial welcome to all visitors who may be worshipping with us this night. We are delighted by your presence and invite you to worship the newborn King with us this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and throughout the coming new year.

We shall use Setting II of the liturgy for our worship. During the administration of the sacrament, the congregation is invited to join in the singing of the carols noted.

We express our deep appreciation to Margaret Knowlton and the members of the Chancel Choir for their beautiful musical contributions to our worship celebration.

Offering envelopes and congregational calendars for 2010 are available downstairs. Please take yours home if your have not yet done so. Our sincere thanks go to the Conway, Cahill-Brodeur Funeral Home of Peabody for presenting the calendars.

The Flower Chart for 2010 is posted on a bulletin board down-stairs. Please reserve Sunday(s) as you wish. The cost remains $30.00 per Sunday.

We encourage you to take your poinsettia(s) home following the service tonight. Those that are left will be shared with our sick and shut-in.

A gentle reminder: While young children are always welcome to the services of God's house, please take them down-stairs if they should begin to disturb the attention to worship of others.

We extend to all members and friends of St. John warmest wishes for a joyous and blessed celebration of our Lord's birth and pray that the blessings of this season will remain with you throughout the new year.
