The flowers on the Altar this morning have been presented by Steve Gemma to the glory of God , and in loving memory of his mother, Paula Gemma..

We continue our celebration of our Lord's Epiphany with this morning's celebration of the Holy Eucharist. St. John practices Eucharistic hospitality. All baptized Christians who have been admitted to the Table in other traditions are invited to share the bread and wine of the Sacrament. If you prefer non-alcoholic wine or to receive the elements in your place, please let an usher know. Young people are also invited to approach the altar to receive a pastoral blessing. Pastor and the lay Assistant will use a hand sanitizer prior to the administration; feel free to exchange the Peace without physical contact.

We extend a warm welcome to all who are present for worship, particularly you who may be visitors among us. St. John is a fellowship of God's people worshipping and serving in the Reformation tradition. We celebrate with you our fellowship in Christ and welcome your participation in our congregational life and ministry. Please sign our Guest Book before you leave, and please join us downstairs following the service for coffee and light refreshments.

We are pleased to install into their responsible positions today the members of the Church Council. We sincerely appreciate their willingness to serve, and we pledge to them our prayer and support.

Our Sunday church school classes begin at 11:00 a.m. Please help us conclude the coffee hour promptly.

The Church Council is asked to meet briefly with Pastor following the service. The council will hold its regular monthly meeting this Thursday evening at 7:00 here at the church.

Our WELCA group will meet next Sunday following the coffee hour. All women are invited to take part.

Our annual Pancake Breakfast will take place on Sunday, February 28. Please mark your calendars and plan to enjoy the fellowship and good food of the morning. Our Sunday Church School will not meet for classes that day.

If you have not yet paid for the poinsettia(s) you ordered at Christmas, please pay Raudna Pelletier as you are able.,

Openings remain on the Flower Chart. Please sign for the Sunday(s) you wish to reserve. The cost remains $30.00 per Sunday.

We ask your prayers and concern for these members and friends of St. John today and throughout the coming week.
